

Call for Volunteers to Translate Allama Mashriqi's Works

AMZ Publications is pleased to invite qualified and experienced volunteers who are native speakers of Urdu to translate Allama Mashriqi's extensive works from Urdu to English. The translator must possess the necessary language skills to ensure that the translation will be accurate, complete, and well-written, and that the translation will accurately reflect Mashriqi's views, beliefs, and thoughts. AMZ Publications will publish the translated works in English and make them available to researchers, libraries, research institutions, etc. in electronic, print, or other forms. The volunteer translator's contribution shall be acknowledged. By increasing the accessibility of these works to a global audience of students and researchers, the volunteer translator will make a great contribution toward the history of the Indian subcontinent.

To apply, please see below for submission guidelines. Further details/terms will be provided upon submission/acceptance of translator credentials.

Submission Guidelines/Process

If you are interested in translating Mashriqi's works, please send the information below via email to the Acquisition Editor at amzpub@yahoo.com.

- Information on the Translator
 - Cover Letter including:
 - Full Name
 - Street Address
 - Phone (cell & landline)
 - Email
 - Website Address (if any)
 - Curriculum Vitae (C.V.)

- Information on the Translation
 - Samples page(s) from prior translations from Urdu to English (if available) along with the original Urdu text

Deadline:

- Translation requests are accepted on an ongoing basis

Disclaimer:

- Additional terms and conditions for all translations will be provided to the approved translator
- Translation services are purely on a voluntary basis
- AMZ Publications reserves the right to change or withdraw the above information/requirements at any time without assigning any reason
- AMZ Publications is not responsible for returning or retaining any materials submitted
- AMZ Publications reserves the right to publish the translation in any form